

NC State GiftEd MBA Competition

The NC State GiftEd MBA Competition is a full tuition scholarship opportunity being offered to both full- and part-time MBA applicants who will enroll in the MBA program at North Carolina State University in the fall of 2006. The top five candidates will be challenged with a business problem from a national company and must each offer their solution to the company with a formal presentation and plan. The winner of the competition will receive a full tuition scholarship for the MBA program. The scholarship will continue as long as the student is continuously enrolled in the NC State MBA program and is in good standing with the University. The four runners-up will each receive a scholarship for 50% of tuition for the 2006-2007 academic year, to be split between the fall and spring semesters.

The top five candidates will be chosen by a committee made up of MBA program staff, faculty, current students, and area professionals. Candidates will be selected based on academic merit, leadership potential, and relevant work experience and will be notified of their selection by February 1, 2006. If chosen, candidates must attend a luncheon in Raleigh, NC on February 3, 2006 to discuss details of the business problem. The candidates will present their individual solutions to the company on February 10, 2006. Candidates must also attend the NC State home basketball game (tickets will be provided) on February 25, 2006, where the winner of the competition will be announced during half time.

All applicants must be eligible for in-state tuition and for admission to the MBA program. In the event that one of the candidates is unable to participate in the competition, an alternate candidate may be selected. Ownership of any intellectual property arising from the applicant's effort in this competition shall be governed by North Carolina State University policies, even where the applicant has not yet enrolled at the University. The names of the top five candidates may appear in news stories associated with the competition. The winner will be expected to pay the required student fees of approximately $572 per semester.
